

1. Do you only play videogames on a certain platform? Answer the question using one of these conjunctions to explain why – if, because, but.
2. Think of any kind of famous team or group. If you were suddenly made responsible for it for one day, what would you change and why?
3. Which are better in your opinion, rural villages or packed cities?
4. Write a ten word sentence about Britain. Then write a ten word sentence about your country.
5. Finish the sentence – “The best place to view a full moon is...”
6. Take the category “somewhere to watch something special”. What places can you think of for that category that are 1. everyday places, 2. famous places, or 3. interesting places.
7. Who is Snoop Dogg and what are bobbleheads? Are there any similar people and collectibles from your country?
8. Find a connection between the two topics “pop culture” and “hobbies” with one of these words – fan, inspire, or experience.
9. Make one sentence for each of these three phrases – well-known, modern-day, and next-level.
10. What are some positive things about the following – trying something new, not drinking alcohol, and being a student.
11. Take the word generation. Think of as many words beginning with the letters g, e, and n that can describe this word.
12. Imagine you are going away to study at college, or move to a new city, or even to live in a new country. What five things would you take that you cannot live without.
13. Draw a line with free written on the left end and 1,500 (in your currency) written on the right end. How much would you pay for the latest piece of mainstream technology? Mark yourself on the line.
14. Starting with the word entertainment, in pairs person one says a word connected in any way to that word. Person two then says a word connected to person one’s word. Then person one replies to person two’s word, and so on. Continue for as long as possible without repeating any words. (Example: “entertainment, movies, actors, actresses...”)

15. Is virtual reality technology useful and/or fun? Answer the question using one of these conjunctions to explain why or why not – if, because, but.
16. Writers, photographers, songwriters, or someone else – who are your favourite types of artists?
17. If you were a judge in a competition, what kind of competition would it be?
18. Finish this sentence so that it is true for you – “Reading helps me to...”
19. Name some music you like to listen to that fits these categories – popular, unpopular, new, old.
20. Lyrics are the words in a song. Where else do you often see song lyrics written? (For example, printed on a T-shirt.)
21. Imagine the word app is actually an acronym, not an abbreviation. What does it stand for? (Be creative!)
22. What does it feel like to achieve a long-term goal? What does it feel like to not achieve one? For example, a personal goal, a sporting goal, or a professional goal?
23. Think of your favourite sport or game. Which is better – being a player or being a spectator?
24. Can you think of ten words in total to describe sport that begin with the letters A, R, and G?
25. Finish this sentence so that it is true for your beliefs – “Everyone should...”
26. What types of transport can you list that falls into these categories – cheap, expensive, safe, dangerous, serious, fun.
27. Make one single sentence that includes the three words (in any order), rule, basic, warn.
28. Compare where you live to Antarctica.
29. What has changed in your town or city over the past 10 years?
30. Name something massive. Take turns and see how long you can last naming something massive without repeating anything.
31. Which is worse for you – paying for a subscription or a free subscription with adverts?
32. What are some positives and negatives about using a chatbot to write or help write your work?

33. Starting with the word chat, in a pair or a group take turns saying a word associated to the word just said. If someone can't say an associated word, they are out. Keep going until there is one winner. (Example: "chat... gossip... share... give... take...")
34. Finish the sentence – "My favourite occasion for giving gifts is..."
35. As a group, draw a line with traditional written on the left end and modern written on the right end. Write above the line the title holidays. Think of some examples of traditional and modern holidays and mark yourself somewhere on the line based on what you prefer. Share your examples and reasons.
36. Think of three adjectives that describe gifts. Share as a group and list the best.
37. List the sports you play or do daily, weekly, monthly, or even yearly.
38. What sports idioms, phrases, or slogans, such as Nike's "Just Do It", do you know?
39. Write an acrostic poem for the word community.
40. Finish the sentence – "Music streaming has affected..."
41. What does the phrase "thinking out loud" mean?
42. Write a fifteen word sentence about your favourite musician. Let others try to guess who it is.