

Everything or specific amounts

1. Hold on with all / both hands.
2. She loves to start both / each workout with a dance warm-up.
3. Only once all / each results are in will any decisions be made.
4. I cycle two days both / each week.
5. All / Each local jobs will be preserved.
6. We make each / every effort to ensure the data is correct.
7. After completing each / every worksheet, the students mark it themselves.
8. Are these two apps similar in terms of features? Yes, they're both / all similar.
9. All / Each options are on the table.
10. Each / Every relationship has its ups and downs.

Larger amounts

1. I want to fix it without spending many / much.
2. I have many / much memories that I will cherish forever.
3. Lots / Many international companies have their headquarters in this city.
4. There's a lot / a lot of room for innovation.
5. I see lots / lots of retro bathrooms that are so cool.
6. I've been looking but I'm not having much / many success.
7. There's so much / many needy families out there.
8. These wonderfully enriching activities provide lots of / many fun.
9. A place that has provided much / many inspiration for the artist.
10. There are much / a lot of individual little problems to solve.

Smaller amounts

1. Connect with new friends, perhaps over several / a bit of wine.
2. Here are some / few tips that I've gathered from my own experience.
3. Getting approved may take a few / a little days.
4. The FAQ section lists few / some common problems.
5. There are too many books and too few / several readers.

6. I went to my local post office to send several / some mail.
7. He obviously knows what he's doing, have a little / a few faith.
8. Several / A bit of banking services are also available within walking distance.
9. It launched the careers of a little / several legendary performers.
10. How much communication did you receive from them? Little / Few.

Nothing or random amounts

1. But there doesn't seem to be any / either sound coming from the speakers.
2. Any Wi-Fi nearby? Any / None.
3. The ideal gift for either / any keen gardener.
4. If either / neither parent is a UK citizen, then the child will be too.
5. It makes any / no sense at all.
6. Good management is important to any / neither business.
7. Alphanumeric characters only (no / neither spaces or punctuation).
8. Though either / neither species is listed here as endangered.
9. It was a boring first half with any / neither team threatening to score.
10. There is no / any additional charge.

Graded and Informal quantifiers

1. You don't need most / loads of DIY know-how or tools to fix it.
2. There are least / fewer tourists in general at this time of year.
3. Which cereal has the heaps of / least amount of sugar?
4. Pancakes, and how much butter and syrup? Oh, plenty / most please.
5. I wake up quite early most / more mornings.
6. He's got most / heaps of business connections.
7. The seventh season might be shortened with fewer / tons of episodes
8. The site quickly became a hit with people wanting to pay less / fewer for travel accommodation.
9. Most / Fewest herbs grow in bright sunlight, but several grow in the shade as well.
10. I ordered fewer / a bunch of stuff from them.

Answers

Everything or specific amounts

1. both

2. each

3. all

4. each

5. All

6. every

7. each

8. both

9. All

10. Every

Larger amounts

1. much

2. many

3. Many

4. a lot

5. lots of

6. much

7. many

8. lots of

9. much

10. a lot of

Smaller amounts

1. a bit of

2. some

3. a few

4. some

5. few

6. some

7. a little

8. Several

9. several

10. Little

Nothing or random amounts

1. any

2. None

3. any

4. either

5. no

6. any

7. no

8. neither

9. neither

10. no

Graded and Informal quantifiers

1. loads of

2. fewer

3. least

4. plenty

5. most

6. heaps of

7. fewer

8. less

9. Most

10. tons of